

New Zealand National Bridge Congress 2015

September 26th to October 3rd

Daily Bulletin 1

26th September

Editorial Staff : Mark Hangartner

CONGRESS WELCOME

A very warm welcome to all players and administrators to the 2015 New Zealand National Bridge Congress. It is really pleasing to report that despite losing around 20 of our keenest competitive players who will be taking part in the Bermuda Bowl/ Venice Cup competitions in India at the same time as this Congress, that numbers here in Hamilton will be a little more than last year's 583.

That is in no small measure due to our visitors from across the Tasman, We love having you, especially when we see so many of you come. This year, the official tally is 70, almost double the number who came last year. To you all, and to our regular Swedish visitor, Martin Löfgren, and to Leo Lin from Taiwan, we hope you not only enjoy our Congress but have the opportunity to see some of our country as well. If you enjoyed the experience, please tell other bridge players back home and next year we may hit the ton of overseas visitors.

Our program of events has been on the Congress website for some time. The main change comes very early in the week. There is certainly a market for our less experienced Open players to have tournaments of their own, or ones where grand and life - masters cannot play. We all like a realistic shot at winning and that has not been the case for many Open players. The success last year of the Restricted Open Swiss Pairs proved the need. This year, as well as that event, we have introduced the Restricted Open Pairs to run alongside the New Zealand Pairs. This is for those of National Master status or lower and provides more suitable competition not just for many Open players but for Intermediate and Junior players as well. It is a four session event with no cut-off and enables all players to take part in the popular Back to The Future Teams on Monday. Of course, all players are free to play in the New Zealand Pairs if they choose.

The Daily Bulletin is extremely grateful to Babich Wines for their on-going sponsorship. Babich is a top quality New Zealand vintner.

Babich Wines has been voted amongst the world's top 50 most admired wine brands in a survey by Drinks International.

In these bulletins to mark 30 uninterrupted years of NZ congresses I'll include some information gleaned from “New Zealand Bridge”, previous bulletins and the memories of players.

Have a look at the collage of photos on the first board in the corridor. The best guess at all their names will win a bottle of Babich Pinot Gris 2015.

But today let's focus on youth

Registration Desk. Please check in at the Bridge Registration Desk, even if you have entered all your events on-line in advance. We want to know you are here and give you a booklet.

By the time you have read this, the first event of the week, The New Zealand Youth Teams, will have been completed. This has replaced the Youth Inter-provincials though with age limit of up to 29 rather than 25, and has allowed teams to be formed no matter from where the players come. With 12 teams taking part, the event should have been both competitive and fun. Read more in this Bulletin.

I am sure all players recognise the importance of both all those involved in the organization of this Congress and of those who sponsor parts of the week. Firstly, a warm welcome to our helpers. Murray Wiggins, as Chief Director, heads a strong Trans – Tasman directing team. We are delighted to welcome back not just one of Australia's top directors but two of them, Sean Mullumphy and Matthew McManus, who will bring a wealth of experience to their role. They are nice guys too! That's not to say that are our own directors lack experience though there may be a couple of new faces for you. Welcome back to Richard Bland, Dallas Dagg, Allan Joseph and Caroline Wiggins and a special first time welcome to Rangiora's Craig Shanahan and Wellingtonian, Sam Ward.

Then, we have our regular Congress Manager, Lesley Chubb and her team of helpers. Unfortunately, our Operations Manager of recent years, Justin Siemelink, cannot fulfil the role this year through injury and is replaced by some local players. Nola and Gwyn are in their usual desk to take entries and payments, find partners and teammates and help you in whatever way they can. They can offer a friendly face too if the week is getting a little stressful!

We have those oh so valuable people you do not see, on the technical side, Peter Busch, over once again from Queensland as Chief Scorer, and System's Administrator, local David Edson. Judy Butler will have a desk in the bar area to help you with any scoring queries, adjustments needed in Pairs events. Others fill very important part-time roles, like Malcolm Smith and Russell Watt, who act as Congress recorders. There are also those who have volunteered to be on Appeals Committees and Appeals Advisors, one per region (and one from Australia) so that hopefully there is one every player will recognize if they are uncertain whether to proceed with an Appeal. They are listed on page 7 of your score booklets. We have also a good group of Caddies who will assist around the playing rooms. That just leaves one person whom I will come to shortly.

Firstly, though, the sponsors, who provide very important support. You will see their names listed on the back of the score booklets and featured throughout the week. If you need insurance, wine, a meal, printing, a hire car here in Hamilton or bridge supplies (surely everyone needs at least one of those?), then support those who support bridge.

Our hosts, the Kingsgate Hotel, are most keen to provide you with what is required for an enjoyable time, whether you are staying on site or are just there for the bridge. Ask Colin and the front desk staff if there is anything they can do for you. They will try their best.

My final introduction is to the new Bulletin Editor, Auckland Mark Hangartner. He is sure to edit out anything nasty I might say about him....but there is absolutely nothing along those lines to say about Mark. He's fairly tall. So, you will not miss him. He really would love you to read and enjoy these Bulletins but also to contribute with stories of the week, maybe amusing, maybe good play by another player. It does not matter which grade of player you are. Mark would love to hear from you in writing or face to face. Do not be shy. In Alan Taylor's, he has big shoes to follow. I am sure Mark's own style. Welcome.

Many of you have pre-entered events on-line. We will endeavour to provide on the Congress website and in paper copy at the venue lists of those who are entered for each event. If you are in any doubt, please see Nola or Gwyn. An important note about entering events. You will not be able to enter events on-line after 4.00pm on Friday September 25th. Please enter at the Bridge Reception Desk, with Nola and Gwyn.

For those of you from overseas, please take a moment to be familiar with our Alerting procedures and the use of STOP cards. (see page 12)

Everyone should remember the requirement to carry a completed system card. It is for your own protection in case of dispute and allows easy access for opponents to discover your system. Please also remember pre-alerting. There are also procedures to follow after one has psyched during this Congress. A psyche is quite legal but we do like them recorded. That's enough warnings. Oh two more! Be nice, very nice to partner and your opponents. Also, we insist that you all enjoy your experience here...and that includes remembering to claim your prize money from Nola or Gwyn. In order to help that enjoyment, the hotel has free two hour internet access in all areas except the playing rooms. That is two hours or 100 MB at one time per appliance. If you just use it for 15 minutes to check your emails, that is your allowance used. You will, of course, have those cell phones off during play, won't you?

If you are not sure of the starting times of sessions, keep an eye on these Bulletins and on the two television screens in the corridors which have replaced the big whiteboards of last year.

You may realise this is the 30th National Congress. To celebrate, there is a display of faces and some quotes from the last 30 years along the corridor for you to enjoy, reminisce over and even perhaps indulge in a small competition.

If you have any concerns during the week, I and some members of the Organizing Committee (Anthony Hopkins, Lesley Chubb or Murray Wiggins) are happy to listen to your problems.

So, enjoy the Bulletins, meet up with bridge players you have not seen for some time or maybe have never met. Play well and with that little bit of luck we all need and enjoy the 30th National Bridge Congress.

Cards at Congress

Next to the Bookshop there are cards for sale at $5 which support Youth Bridge.

Happily there is always a good reason to buy one. Today it is to say Happy Birthday to Susan Humphries who also arrived in 1986. A valiant champion for NZ youth bridge, Susan plays in the NZ women's team and at Akarana with Steph Jacob.

2015 Youth Teams

The cream of NZ youth bridge gathered to inaugurate this addition to the NZ Bridge calendar.

Te Awamutu Primary School's Gareth Duncan, the Principal, brought a keen group of students to watch the first match.

North took A♠ quickly drew two rounds of trumps ruffed a ♠, then played clubs until East ruffed and took 2 more spades to go with 2 diamonds. Down 2. Good defence from Ellena and James.

The declarer needed to think a little longer, first about control. Make sure you lose a heart while you still have a small ♥ to manage the spades, it is also good play to avoid losing to West just in case the A♦ is offside.

Unsurprising Ellena and James couldn't quite find the killing defence on 10:

East has a perfectly normal 1♥ opener good shape and her points working. South decided to bid 2♣. North bid a natural 2♠ and South raised to 4♠. An opening 8♣ lead is perfectly normal but allowed declarer to make 5. Imagine an inspired A♥ lead and a ruff, a diamond back is obvious and see what happens when West ruffs the third ♥. Yes declarer overruffs but this promotes East's J♠ to be the setting trick.

11. Conduct

11.1 Any one or more of the following matters shall constitute an offence by a contestant in respect of which the Tournament Organiser (TO) and/or the Director-in-Charge (DC) will be entitled to impose disciplinary penalties including suspension for part of or all of an event, and/or disqualification for an entire event, as it sees fit, namely:

- (a) Any breach of the laws or proprieties of bridge as set out in the Laws and as modified by these Regulations
- (b) Any behaviour during Congress which the TO and/or the DC shall decide is offensive, objectionable and/or unbecoming
- (c) Any behaviour within the Congress venue, grounds of the venue, or near the venue immediately before its commencement, during its conduct or soon after its completion, which the TO and/or the DC shall decide is offensive, objectionable and/or unbecoming
- (d) Any behaviour immediately before the commencement, during the conduct, or soon after the completion of Congress that shall be deemed by the TO and/or the DC to bring the game of bridge and/or NZ Bridge into disrepute, including "posts" on social media sites, and/or any other sphere of activity.

NZ Bridge will not tolerate harassment, badgering, nor disrespectful, obstructive or abusive behaviour whether verbal, written or physical, by any person towards any of its staff, officials, directors or voluntary workers. Postings on Social Media are not exempt for the purposes of this clause.

11.2 Disciplinary powers of the Director in Charge

In accordance with Law 91B and in accordance with the minutes of the WBF Laws Committee 09/11/2003, NZ Bridge has given its authority, in advance, to the DC, to disqualify a contestant, or at his discretion, to disqualify one player only allowing the other player of the pair or other members of the team to continue their participation in the tournament.

11.2.1 The DC, from the time of his arrival at the Congress venue until the venue is vacated at the conclusion of the event, has full powers to solely exercise those disciplinary powers afforded by the Laws, as well those disciplinary powers afforded by these Supplementary Regulations including suspension and/or disqualification of a contestant, or of a single player.

11.2.2 In the case of an entry comprising several events for which a package entry fee is available, the DC has the authority to disqualify a contestant for cause from all events.

11.2.3 The DC may, in his discretion, report any suspension under Law 91A separately to the National Recorder, and NZ Bridge, all of whom may consider whether further action is appropriate.

NZ Bridge may report this matter to the Conduct, Discipline and Disputes Committee (CDDC) for further enquiry and determination under Rule 27 of the NZB constitution.

11.3 Automatic Suspension following disqualification.

A player who has been disqualified under Law 91 is, as amended by these Regulations, prohibited from participating in any tournaments, competitions or sessions conducted under the auspices of NZ Bridge until otherwise notified in writing by the Board or Chairperson of the CDDC.

Alerting

Players are reminded that they should pre-alert when they meet to play a round or a match.

Overseas players should note that 2♣ simple stayman and 2♦ response denying a 4 card major should not be alerted. They are considered to be self-alerting. Any other use of 2♣ over 1NT must be alerted.

Likewise, 2♣ Game Force opening bids (and 2♦ negative responses) are considered self-alerting and should not be alerted.

Players must alert any bids which are conventional, are not self-alerting and have not been pre-alerted.

Psyches

A psyche is a deliberate and gross misrepresentation of your high card strength and/or the length of one of your suits. Note that the key words are “deliberate” and “gross”. To make a wrong bid accidentally is not a psyche - it is not deliberate. To shade an opening bid by a couple of points is not a psyche - it is not gross.

Psyches are an integral part of the game. As long as you do not psyche persistently, you are allowed to psyche. In New Zealand, to psyche more than twice in a session is defined as psyching persistently. To guard against this, a psyche register is in use at Congress.

If you psyche then you should collect a psyche form from the hand records rack by Congress desk. You complete the form and hand it to a director within 30 minutes of the conclusion of the session in which you psyched. If you are unsure as to whether your bid was a psyche then seek a director's ruling as the penalties for failing to report a psyche are severe. On the first occasion of failure to report, you can be fined upto 5% or 15 imps. If the offence is repeated then you may well be asked to leave Congress.

If someone psyches against you, then you may check on its being reported by asking a director to check for you.

Stop Cards

Players must use a stop card whenever they make a skip bid.

The stop card should be placed in front of the their LHO before making the skip bid and after allowing time for any alert and for questions from the LHO, the card should remain in place for approximately 10 seconds.

Failure to follow the procedure may be taken into account by the Director when assessing what action to take under Law 16B.

Systems Cards.

NZ Bridge regulations require a fully completed NZ Bridge System Card to be carried and available for inspection by their opponents or the Director at all 10A or higher Tournaments.

NZ Bridge regulations require a NZ Bridge System Card, with the outer 2 pages completed, to be carried and available for inspection by their opponents or the Director at all other Tournaments.

An appropriately completed ABF Standard System Card is the only other permitted system card
