

New Zealand National Bridge Congress 2015

September 26th to October 3rd

Daily Bulletin 3

28th September

Editorial Staff : Mark Hangartner

Welcome to day three of Congress,

Is this too small to read? There are a few copies in larger format at the registration Desk. Ask for one!

By now the NZ Restrictd Open Pairs will have completed. Congratulations to NZ Bridge on adding this event which judging by the number of entries and the feedback I received went very well.

One of the effects of this event is to make qualifying rounds for the New Zealand Open Pairs very competitive indeed. So if you made it through to the plate or the final, well done. If you didn't never mind there is always the teams.

Winners of the Novice Pairs: Lee McGovern, Heather Robertson, Poppy & Will Fulton

The Daily Bulletin is extremely grateful to Babich Wines for their on-going sponsorship. Babich is a top quality New Zealand vintner.

Babich Wines has been voted amongst the world's top 50 most admired wine brands in a survey by Drinks International.

Congress Noticeboard

Monday October 1st

NZ Pairs Final:	9:30am & 2:15pm
Back to the Future Teams:	10:00am & 2:15pm
Back to the Future Final Only :	8:00pm
Rubber Final	8:00pm
Goulash Pairs	8.30 pm

Goulash Pairs - $5 Table Money

As this is an additional event, there will be a $5 entry charge. 50% of the money collected will be returned as prize money and 50% will go to the New Zealand Bridge Foundation. Goulash dealing is done in groups of cards and this ensures that there will be wild and woolly distributions . It really is FUN bridge.

Tuesday October 2nd

NZ Teams Q1 10:30am - Lunch - NZ Teams Q2 & Q3 1:30pm - Dinner
- NZ Teams Q4 & Q5 7:45pm

Back To The Future Teams

Entries close at the desk at 9 am. If you want team-mates please see Nola or Gwyn at the Congress Desk. Remember that you must play each session with a different partner. It may be tactically advisable to play your most practised partnerships in order to qualify or to save them for the finalyou decide. Teams containing contestants in the Rubber final CANNOT qualify for the final of this event. Only 26 teams qualify for the final. Any request for substitutes must be approved by the Chief Director

New Zealand Teams

Entries close at 9.00 am on Tuesday. System regulations for the Teams will be published tomorrow

Overseas Players

Please use your NZ computer number when using the scorers. If you don't know your number, please see Nola or Gwyn at the desk

Correction Period

The correction period for each Matchpoint pairs event expires 30 minutes after the scores are made available for inspection. This includes the back to the future teams.

The correction period for each match in the teams and swiss pairs expires 15 minutes after the scheduled conclusion of the following match and 30 minutes after the scores are made available in the final match of each session.

Vugraph in the bar

You asked for it the tech staff provided it. Mary-Ellen asked me if we could provide it, I took it to Murray and immediately David was on the job testing it out. "You know about BBO Vugraph?" I ask, "Never heard of it but if it comes over the Internet should be possible." It might mean an early start for keen fans.

The eternal plea from editors of bulletins is give me your stories. I know there gems out there and unless you tell me. If there are extra copies of bulletins you might like to take them back to your club, it may attract future congress players, and even better if there is a story involving a player from your club or region. Thanks to Alan Parkes my first email contribution!

Welcome to the novitiate

If I were Douglas Russell I would have several erudite word plays about mothers superior, wimples, learning the rule, and enclosed orders.

The Novices competition took place today, welcome to all these who are making their Congress debuts.

First slam in the Novice section

For at least one of our players in the novice section board 10 will be memorable for a long time to come. This was the first time she bid and made slam. Something good happened in the play and she made 7.

I passed with the south cards and west opened 1NT. Graham decided to bid 2♦ showing ♠+another at least 5/4 distribution with 11+ points but not necessarily 5 spades. With 3 card support for the known suit I would bid 2♠ otherwise bid 2♥ which he can pass or bid 2♣ with 5 or bid a 5 card minor. Of course I have this sinking feeling but dutifully bid 2♥ which is passed out.

West leads the 3♣ won by East's A and a diamond returned. I won the A, played K♣ discarding a diamond from dummy. I ruffed a diamond then played A♠ and K♠ and a third spade. East ruffed with the 8♥ and I over ruffed with the K. I then played another diamond ruffed in dummy and played another spade which was ruffed by East with the 10♥ and I threw a club. West was a little distracted and under ruffed with the 2♥! East then played another club ruffed in dummy again. I led another spade ruffed by East with the J♥ and west had to under ruff with the 6♥ leaving the dummy holding the 6♠ and Q♥ and West with ♥A9. East was left with the Q♦ and 9♣ so the Q♥ in dummy became good. Making 3♥.

Who needs a 6-2 fit when a 4-2 will do? (with a little help from the opponents of course) for a middle score of 53%.

Thanks Alan, the joys of the sub-moysian.

Well used to getting himself out of trouble with little help from dummy this hand was child's play for Ian Berrington who currently plays at Akarana.

Ian ruffed the club continuation, cashed AK♠, and exited with a little ♠. This was the first throw in, south cannot afford to ruff his partner's trick, that bares his K♥. Analysis shows that playing back a ♥ now still leaves declarer with a trick short and forced to play diamonds himself. But somehow it looks very unattractive and at the table Colin played a low ♦. Ian took K♦ with A♦, cashed Q♦ and ... guess what threw in North again.

This is the fatal throw-in Colin having to choose between giving dummy an entry with a club or taking the finesse for declarer with a ♥. Thanks to Colin Carryer for providing the story.

In both NZ Open the Restricted Open Pairs more than one East “fell in love with their hand”. There was one pair who played 7♣X going for a tasty 1400.

John Chen gave me this hand. He and Alice Young were not hard pressed to take this 4 light for a top in their section. IMHO East did the right thing pre-empting with 4NT but would be wiser to leave future decisions to partner. The natural 5♣ bid from south should have been a warning too.

When I watched Merle Marr play this, she opened a strong 1♣. Alan Grant jumped to 2NT. Merle ended the bidding by declaring 4♠. Alan lead K♦ taken by Merle who ventured a low ♥. Alan wasn't wasting his Ace so Merle had an entry to A♣ to dispose of the losing ♦ in her hand. Now she carefully played a ♥ back to K and Alan's Ace, and ruffed his return. Drawing just one round of trumps Merle ruffed her little ♥ in dummy to claim 12 tricks.

Play of the day

You can nominate your partner, opponent or yourself for this daily award.

All I need is for you to describe the play you made to achieve a great result.

Winning today is William O'Shea

Bridge in Auckland and Asian impact.

Those who were at the youth teams watching the enthusiastic youth from Macleans College and elsewhere will have noticed we have a big influx of new players from Asia particularly China, although many of the youth are NZ born.

At the NZ Bridge AGM in the context of developing bridge and club membership there was quite a lot of discussion of how this particularly affects Auckland.

At the Akarana we have had our numbers and our talent pool greatly extended with newer players and some who have played for many years in China. As well as Alice Young and John Chen mentioned earlier here is roundup of some of our regular players.

For many of these it is also there first times playing at Congress so a warm welcome to them all.

Leo Lin and Clair Miao, from Taiwan originally. Clair is studying in Auckland. She was a youth player in Taiwan. She and Gary Chen performed exceptionally well at the NZ Wide pairs.

George Sun and William Liu. These two have played NZ teams for the past two years, this is their first NZ Pairs. Since forming a partnership at the end of last year they regularly feature performing well at Akarana.

Tony Jiang and Julia Zhu. Tony played 30 years ago in China at University and after a long break has come back to Bridge, while Julia has played only in New Zealand. They are a strong component of the Junior section of the Auckland Clubs team playing on Thursday.

In the Restricted Open Laurie went one down for a good result, but after the ♥ switch to K and ♥ return Laurie played trumps.

Ray held off two rounds and dummy pitched J♥. When Ray took his A♠ he continued a ♦ and Laurie realised if she had kept the heart she would have made.

Other bidding styles reveal this was a tricky hand to evaluate for both sides:

Australian Matthew Thomson wrote in Bid More, Play More, Enjoy More, Win More, extolling the virtues of the 5431 shape hand. This hand would certainly be evidence for that view.

EW find their fit early on and it should be possible for both of them to envisage the layout. A ♥ bid by North actually makes it easier both for both East and South to go to game. Who got there first?

Playing 3NT from East Chris Mulley got a ♠ lead to dummy's J. The next 5 tricks alternated ♦ and ♠ tricks as each side set up their long suits. -1

A couple of high clubs would have made it easier for Chris.

William O'Shea scored better when North having passed 2♦ decided to double 3♦ as lead directing. He was quick with the redouble and wrapped up 10 tricks. Had North doubled 2♦ the score to EW would have been lower.

As William explains it the trick is to ensure you reduce the East trump holding by playing spades but by trick 11 to make sure you can cross to dummy to lead through East's remaining diamonds.
