Bulletin 7, September 28, Mercury Baypark

The CORNELL round of 16 second stanza attracted a few kibitzers. Michael Cornell turned to the young lady on his left, who, not wanting to crowd the table sat right back at Michael's left "Come a little closer, you can't be part of the game way back there" he said to Emma Russell.

CORNELL were playing YOUNG, Alice Young – George Sun, Brett Glass – Gary Foidl, an Auckland – Huntly team. Gary didn't fancy the contract he was about to play, and as an aside asked his kibitzer, Bigi Cameron whether she would like to play the hand.

Emma and Bigi are part of the Mt Albert contingent at congress, and I remember well featuring the Mt Albert club and Arch Jelly, the club's teacher and main driving force in a 2019 Bulletin.

I also remember Bigi and her partner excitedly coming out of the playing room after winning the Junior Pairs in 2019.

This year Bigi's team were the Bumble Beans

Bigi and Emma went to the Surfers Congress this year, and the Mt Albert club members got together to enter the hat-themed dress up day. At our congress parade they were the Bumble Beans.

It's great to see veterans of the game like Ashley and Michael being so kind to kibitzers.

Ashley was not happy with the auction, as he was not sure of the implications of Michael's 4♦ bid. In his eyes pass would deny ♣A, while 4♦ would show both minor aces. (I think rdbl would show ♣A but not ♦A.

So the slam was missed.

I talked to Huntly player Gary Foidl after his narrow loss to CORNELL.

Early in the third stanza he played a board where slam was a good bet.

He worried about it for the rest of the match, only to find it was a flat board.

Gary brooded for the rest of the stanza when 13 tricks made in comfort: "It's sure to be a loss", he thought. But it was not bid at the other table.

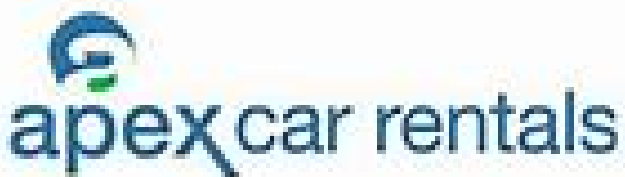

I talked about the deal with Gary, telling him that a mixed raise, popular in Australia, but not so common here, would have worked well. The mixed raise shows four trumps and around 7-10 HCP, and says nothing about hearts.

"But what about when you want to bid 2NT to play?" you might ask.

"How many times to you want to play in 2NT as the final spot?" is the reply. Choose 3NT if you have the sort of hand with close to game values and a useful holding in the suit overcalled.

Knowing about the fourth trump is a vital piece of information.

There are other ways of treating a mixed raise which do not involve 2NT, (1♦, 1♥ by partner, pass, 3♦ by you), but I find the 2NT version the easiest to use, with its semi preemptive value, and the fact that it is easy to remember!! Talk about the situation with partner.

Is there a junior pair going to the 2024 Gold Coast Congress who would like to play the teams with a Kaikoura pair?

Allan Joseph, Director

There was no chance for nerves to kick in such as Allan's rapid introduction to bridge. "My wife Rosa taught me at home, and then a week later, she introduced me to someone to play with at the club. That was in 2002." Allan learnt to play Acol and these days plays Precision or Acol with his club and tournament partners. Kairangi is Allan's home club and he's also a member of Victoria and Wellington clubs.

Allan became a club director, nearly 20 years ago, two years after learning to play bridge in 2004, and a tournament director two years after that in 2006. Allan says, "there was no great revelation or divine inspiration, it was just an interest in all aspects of bridge" that motivated him to become a director. He first directed at Congress in 2007 or maybe 2008 and has directed every year since then. As a director, "I like to help people and I like seeing them enjoy their bridge."

Although retired for about a year, Allan is as busy as ever. "I've spent a lot of time this year developing online directors' training courses and doing house renovations." When he's not playing or directing bridge, Allan and Rosa play Croquet and swim (although not as often as he should do, he says). They also do 'house swaps' and they'll visit Canberra later this year and Melbourne in February 2024.

David Stephens, Director

Friends got David interested in playing bridge, and he went along to lessons, joining the Christchurch Bridge Club in 1981. He became a club director about three years later, a tournament director in 1990 and a national director a few years after that. "To become a national director wasn't nearly as structured and formal and as it is today. There was an exam, and Ari Geursen, would follow you around to see you in action." He recalls Congress in Rotorua as a lot of fun, particularly when play was spread across the hotel and moving from the Conference, Redwood and Terrace rooms and across the road to the Ganges Hall, and the camaraderie on show as you passed people going backwards and forwards.

David first directed at Congress in 2000/2001 and again in 2004/2005. Thereafter he moved between systems administration/technology roles in 2006/2007 and 2010/2011 and back to directing roles in 2008/2009. David then took some time away from Congress from 2013 to 2017. "I then got roped back in and have directed at Congress since 2018. I enjoy directing as well as catching up with the friends I've made through bridge. I think the role of the director is to assist players and their enjoyment of the game, and I like to think I've been reasonably successful at that. I think the greatest compliment you can get as a director, 'who was the director, did we have one'."

David continues to be a member of Christchurch Bridge Club although playing less these days.

Outside of bridge, he's a keen mountain biker, enjoying the Port Hills and other tracks and trails around Christchurch.
